- ✧ Come and bag a bargain at the Baghdad bazaar! Bargains at the old bazaar!
- ✧ For the very first time I see life for real
- For the very first time I feel what they feel!
- ✧ Creeping through the night, keeping out of sight, Ready for a fight, we're the forty thieves!
- ✧ Humphrey, oh, we know that it's true - We will stick together 'til the end.
- ✧ What a genius genie I am! What a genius genie I am!
- ✧ Up, up and away! We're flying with the wind in our hair! On a magical carpet!

Can you still remember all the songs and dialogues in "Ali Baba and the Bongo Bandits"? Although it was postponed for more than two months, the cast, choir and orchestra still performed marvelously. We received praise from our parents, old boys and friends of LSPS. Other than creating fond memories, I hope you have all learned to cooperate with one another and express yourself confidently. Remember to thank the teachers and parent helpers who worked so hard behind the scenes. My congratulations to you all again!
